FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Real McCoy Ferry Out-of-Service until Midnight

Solano County – Emergency mechanical repairs have prompted the California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) to temporarily suspend ferry service on the Real McCoy (Cache Slough Ferry). The ferry provides service from State Route 84 in Rio Vista to Ryer Island in Solano County. The ferry is expected to be back in service by midnight tonight (September 22).

Today's service interruption does not affect the J-Mack (the Steamboat Slough ferry) which also services Ryer Island, near Rio Vista.
